

Support Event Helper

“Whether you want to get involved in caring, fundraising, awareness raising or campaigning, you won’t fail to be uplifted by this community. And you will soon find yourself making a difference, even if it’s just in small steps. Every step is pushing us towards better care and the ultimate goal, a cure.” David, volunteer

What’s involved?

- Ensure people affected by MND have a positive and comfortable experience while attending coffee mornings, afternoon teas, support meetings or drop-ins
- Represent the MND Association and provide information about its services

This role will suit me if I:

- Have a warm, welcoming and compassionate manner
- Have good listening and communications skills
- Have an understanding of MND and its impact on families or can learn

What’s in it for me?

- Become part of a friendly and dedicated team
- Make a positive impact to the lives of people affected by MND
- Get access to a range of learning opportunities

How flexible is the role?

Support Event Helpers attend regular gatherings. Some of these run weekly while others run on a monthly basis.

What sort of training/induction will I receive before starting?

You’ll be inducted into the role and informed about the Association. As part of this, you will receive e-learning, face-to-face training and mentoring. The training programme will also include experiential and reflective learning.

What’s the next step?
