

Media Relations Volunteer

"I enjoy knowing that I am helping to raise awareness and funds for such an amazing charity. It is a great feeling to know you are making a difference in some way." Sammy, Volunteer

What's involved?

Media Relations Volunteers:

- Proactively publicise branch/group activities and events
- Develop contacts with the local media
- Write press releases
- Offer speakers to local radio and TV

This role will suit me if I:

- Am a good communicator
- Have good writing skills and can create press releases or have a willingness to learn
- Have an interest in local media
- Have a willingness to recognise and use opportunities for publicity
- Am a relationship builder

What's in it for me?

- Develop your communication and networking skills
- Gain experience in media relations
- Become part of a friendly and dedicated local team
- Access to a range of workshops and events

How flexible is the role?

The Media Relations volunteer will work from home for approximately 2 hours a week and will attend committee / planning meetings as necessary

What sort of training/induction will I receive before starting?

You'll be inducted into the role and informed about the Association. As part of this, you will receive e-learning, face-to-face training and mentoring. The training programme will also include experiential and reflective learning.
