bakeit! quiz instructions

Welcome to our fabulous cake-related bakeit! quiz! This is a quick and fun addition to any event and can be used to help boost your fundraising by asking for a donation to take part (we recommend £1).

You may want to consider offering a small prize to the individual/team that gets the most answers right, or just do it for the fun.

If you haven't held a quiz before, we have two suggestions of how you could run this alongside your event:

Suggestion one

Sell the quiz as people arrive, alongside your cakes, or ask a volunteer to walk round with them (children are particularly good at this!)

Before you start selling the quiz, decide on an entry deadline and when you will announce the winner. This could be during the event or a week afterwards so that people can take the quiz home. You could also sell them to friends who can't attend?

There's space for you to write the competition details on the bottom of the quiz sheet, along with any other instructions (and then photocopy/print plenty of sheets).

After the entry deadline, check the answers on each quiz sheet returned to you (or ask someone to do this for you in exchange for cakes) and draw a winner from the correct sheets. Present your prize to the winner!

Suggestion two

This is more like a traditional pub quiz; we've provided some answer sheets on a separate page below ready to be photocopied/printed and cut up). Set a time that you will hold the quiz and ask who wants to join in the fun. Hand out the answer sheet and collect the entry fee.

Once you've read out all the questions, get the teams to score each others' answer sheets while you read out the correct answers. Collect in the scores and decide on your winner! As this is a short quiz you may like to add some of your own questions too?
