

The MND Association Care Centre and Network Day

Tuesday 14 June 2022

Programme

10:00	Welcome – setting the scene for the day	Nick Goldup, Director of Care Improvement Motor Neurone Disease Association
10:15	Update from the MND Association	Sally Light, Chief Executive Motor Neurone Disease Association
10:35	A spotlight on improving multi-disciplinary care	Sally Hughes, Assistant Director – Care Motor Neurone Disease Association
	Case study on approaches to multi-disciplinary care developments and partnership working	Caroline Bidder, Network Lead Care Co-ordinator, South Wales Care Network Pauline Callagher, Co-ordinator, Lancashire and South Cumbria Caroline Davis, Motor Neurone Disease Clinical Nurse Specialist, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham
12:00	Comfort Break
12.10	Update on the health and care landscape post COVID - 19	Chris James, Director of External Affairs Motor Neurone Disease Association
12:25	Challenges and opportunities for MND care in the post COVID - 19 world	Breakout groups
13:00	Lunch

Care Centre and Network Day 2022

13:45	Introduction to the afternoon session The MND Association 's aims in improving access to psychological care and a personal story	Nick Goldup
14:00	Development of an MND Psychology service and working with cognitive and behavioural change	Chair – Dr Emily Mayberry, Senior Clinical Psychologist, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
	The emotional impact of MND and direct psychotherapeutic work with those affected	Dr John Ashworth, Counselling Psychologist, Existential psychotherapist, North Bristol NHS Trust
	Psychology resources and group work	Dr Rachel Woolrich, Principal Clinical Psychologist, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
	Indirect work: supervision, consultation and staff support	Dr Emma Linney, Senior Clinical Psychologist in Neuropsychology, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
15:15	Summary of the challenges and opportunities
15:30	Final comments	Nick Goldup
15:45	Conference close

The event has been submitted for approval by the Royal Colleges of Physicians for 5 category
1 (external) CPD credit(s)