

2023 MND Professionals' Community of Practice Networking event

Supporting people living with MND through advance care planning – A role for the whole MDT

09.30 - 10.00 am	Registration, exhibitors, demonstrations, and refreshments
10.00 - 10.05 am	Official welcome Jennifer Bedford, Head of Partnerships, Education and Information
10.05 - 10.45 am	Keynote speech/scene setting presentation. Advance Care Planning: Who, When and How Much? Dr Trish Sealy, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, South Tees Hospital Trust
10.45 - 11.00 am	Comfort break, exhibitors, and demonstrations
11.00 - 12.00 pm	Session 1: Diagnosis and first conversations - How much information does the person and their family want?
12.00 - 12.15 pm	Comfort break, exhibitors, and demonstrations
12.15 - 1.15 pm	Session 2: Living with Motor Neurone Disease - What does the person seem ready to plan? - What does the person think are the best options for them?
1.15 - 2.30 pm	Lunch, networking and demonstrations
2.30 - 3.30 pm	Session 3: End of life - What do we need to do to ensure that this person achieves a good death?
3.35 - 4 pm	Expert Core panel - Reflection on discussions from the day
4 - 4.15 pm	Evaluation and closing thoughts. Event closes

Programme