How to organise a golf day

A golf day is a great way to raise money whilst doing something you love! Read our guide to find out how you can hit the fairways in the fight against MND.

Planning your event

Register for your free fundraising pack

Let us know about your fundraising so we can support you. Register here to claim your free fundraising pack and tshirt.

Find a venue

Speak to your local golf club about hosting your event there. Don't forget to tell them it's for charity to make sure you get their best price! The hire cost will help you decide on ticket prices.

Set a date and spread the word

Let your friends, family and work colleagues know and spread the word across social media to ensure a good turnout. Use our handy poster maker to create flyers and social media posts!

Plan your format

Decide how many holes you will play and the tournament type. Don't forget to allow time for breaks and your fundraising extras.

Fundraising extras

Invite corporate sponsors

Ask local businesses to get involved by sponsoring a hole! They can donate in exchange for advertising their business.

Host a raffle

Ask friends, family and local businesses for prizes. sell raffle tickets and draw the raffle at your golf day!

Create competition

Boost your fundraising with a hole-in-one contest or longest-drive competition! Set a donation to take part and have prizes available for the winners. Get in touch with our fundraising team for golf prizes!

Sell refreshments

Raise some extra cash on the day with a drinks and snacks stall. You could even volunteer someone to drive round with them in a golf buggy!

On the day

Ask for help

Nominate some friends to help you set up and run the event with you. Arrive early so you can make sure everything is in order.

Explain the rules

Welcome your golfers and let them know how the day will take shape.

Choose teams

Work out how many teams you can have in advance and split out your guests! Remember, you'll have a mix of golf enthusiasts and complete novices.

After the event

Announce the winner

Give out the winner's prize. Ask a local business to donate the prize, or use cash from the entry fee.

Thank your supporters

Thank everyone for taking part and let them know what a big difference their donations are making. Use this opportunity to share why you're supporting the fight against MND.

Pay in your fundraising

If you use an online fundraising page, you don't need to do anything. The funds will be sent to us automatically. If you have any cash donations or cheques, find out how you can pay them in.
